WASHINGTON, June 19, 2017 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- The NHP Foundation (NHPF) is pleased to announce that it has appointed Sheldon L. Schreiberberg to The NHPF Board of Trustees.

Mr. Schreiberberg brings to the Board of Trustees an extensive knowledge of asset valuation considerations and strategies for real estate and finance in the affordable housing space. Since 1980, Mr. Schreiberberg has been responsible for the development and finance of over a billion dollars of multifamily and healthcare properties.

"The depth of Sheldon's career accomplishments has given him a unique perspective on the best practices for housing and community development," said NHPF CEO Richard F. Burns. "His insights will be extremely valuable as we continue to provide value-added affordable housing for Americans in need."

Mr. Schreiberberg currently serves as special counsel in Washington D.C. to the firm Lobel, Novins and Lamont, LLP. Previously, he was Senior Partner with Pepper Hamilton, LLP, and was the founder and chair of their Affordable Housing and Community Development Practice Group. In his current capacity, Mr. Schreiberberg assists an eclectic range of clients with the planning, negotiation, documentation and closing of property transactions. His areas of practice include affordable housing and community development, the Community Reinvestment Act, financial services, nonprofit foundations, and real estate.

In addition to his law practice, Mr. Schreiberberg has been active in federal government. He first served as a staff member for Senator and Vice President Hubert Humphrey, and then again as the executive assistant to the Assistant Secretary for Housing and Urban Development. Mr. Schreiberberg has also served as counsel to the Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Subcommittee on Housing and Community Development of the U.S. House of Representatives where he was the principal draftsman of housing legislation.

Additionally, Mr. Schreiber has served as counsel to and a member of the National Housing Preservation Task Force, and counsel to the National Housing and Rehabilitation Association. He is a director of the National Leased Housing Association, and the National Housing Law Project, trustee of the National Housing Conference, counsel to the Pennsylvania Affordable Housing Corporation, a member of the Advisory Council of the Humphrey School of Public Affairs at the University of Minnesota and a board member at Cinnaire, a full-service community development financial partner.

Mr. Schreiber is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Minnesota, and earned his Master's in Public Administration at Princeton's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs. He received his Juris Doctor degree from Harvard Law School.
